Dear Sir or Madam,

Kindly expedite a copy of this fax to HMQ and the Ladies of the Court of St. James. It is our wish that the details of how the internet phones requested by Prince William in public have been stolen by 'Royal Protection Officers' is carefully documented. High Treason to Her Majesty The Queen applies.

03 March 2015 contemplative journal

May it please Your Majesty,

The clock in the sky says Sun conjunct Ceres besides Neptune, Chiron opposite Jupiter+Node, Saturn trine Uranus. Moon approaching a solar eclipse on the night of 8th..9th March, when Moon joins Ceres Sun Neptune stellium.

Mahakali, Parvathi, has shown us that Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge can "see clearly" the presence of the LORD and into the hearts of the men who are "in school". We have seen a sign that the loss of the telephones troubles William.

We have a report that further phones for Your Majesty and significant members of the Royal family are ready and available in Chelmsford. Ladies are good at communicating, travelling incognito; wearing a burqa or different hairstyle, clothes, etc. There are other internet phones, programmed and placed into the offices in Unterageri that can be picked up there.

It is our wish to provide these devices without cost - they can simply be picked up and more made available as needed. The wish of those to whom it would be useful are visible. It is not our wish to send the thieves masquerading as 'Royal Protection Officers' any more paperweights. By what authority did they steal the phones? Quo Warranto?

Mahakali has also shown us that the Serpent, the Tempter, is at work in London. There is great danger for anyone tempted by the so-called money that is being handed out.

A visible example is:

It is our wish that the Rabbi is informed by one of the ladies of the danger, which the learned Rabbi must know only too well.

His Holiness Pope Francis has given several sermons, the latest features the "Pope, sun tit, red light" image. The snakes are busy and His Holiness is surrounded by them.

> If the heart is hardened and closed, God's mercy does not enter.

> "This unfaithfulness of God's people," warns the Pope, is "also ours." It is "our own infidelity [which] hardens the heart, closes the heart!"

> "It does not allow [us to hear] the voice of the Lord who, as a loving father, always asks us to open ourselves to His mercy and His love. In the Psalms, the Pope adds, we all pray together: 'Hear now the voice of God. Do not harden your hearts! ' The Lord always speaks with us in this way, also with the tenderness of a father who says: 'Return to me with all your heart, for I am compassionate and merciful.' But when the heart is hardened, you don't understand this. God's mercy can only be understood when you are able to open your heart to let it enter. "

We can see that Archbishop Gallagher is surrounded by snakes. We suggest Her Majesty's Gurkas are sent under cover to slay these 'hardened' snakes with a Kukri. Exodus 32:27 applies. "Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side ... and slay every man ...". "Slay", means, in this context, "kill with a sharp metal blade". We can already see that there must be faithful Scots and Englishmen who wish to volunteer.

> Archbishop Gallagher in Britain to highlight Holy See foreign policy

> Asked about concerns that Catholics are still not always trusted to be loyal citizens, the Archbishop says while some still believe this, it is important to recognize the enormous progress that has been made in terms of law and opportunity.

What His Holiness commanded him to do and the reality of what is going on in London, amongst the Tories, for example, and in Europe, and in, and amongst the banks, is visible. Can His Holiness Pope Francis trust a 'Catholic'? Can the Lords of the British Treasury trust a 'banker'?

We send our love to YHVH for Your Majesty!

Yours faithfully,
