His Holiness Pope Francis via Princes of the Clergy

14 March 2016

Your Holiness,

This courtesy copy follows via 'Holy See' offices.

By multiplying entities beyond necessity, Roman Priests have invited the wrath of the Sharp double-edged Sword of the LORD.

How many of them have done their duty to pass on faxed received and contact Your Holiness? How many of them have read the Amicus curiae(s) published in the Readme section of www.courtofreord.org.uk?

How many 'Holy See' offices shall be axed?

We send our love to YHVH for Your Holiness!

Yours faithfully,

Joseph Ray Sundarsson

Your Holiness,

Ave Maria!

"Dark times" are now upon the "Cult of Malta" following "Karmic Boomerang", says Mahakali, YHVH in Her Active Form. She has shown us threats of 'dirty bombs' with 'black plague', 'pepinos', etc., now unfolding.

"What shall we do with the drunken sailor ... er-lie in the morning"

It is our wish that "wanna-be sailor" Burke is relieved of his duties.

> 18/02/2016 15:47 (Vatican Radio) Pope Francis will hold his second "Jubilee > Audience" in St. Peter's Square. During the event, the Italian Federation of Blood > Donors (FIDAS) will be holding their Jubilee Pilgrimage, with over 25,000 people > affiliated with the organisation expected to be in attendance.

We have read reports of Your Holiness' return, visit to Salus Populi Romani and the 'blood donation' drive for Your Holiness' Jubilee Audience planned for Saturday, 20 Feb 2016.

"'Saline' is the greatest 'life saving' medical invention ever", observed my Father, "It is far less risky than blood transfusions". We suggest caution regarding blood transfusions as 'accidental' mistakes, for example, the wrong blood type, can lead to death. This vector of attack cannot be discounted, should Your Holiness need blood as a result of rectal loss caused by blood-dysentery complications from the viral bio-weapon attack on Your Holiness.

We note that the Preacher to the Pontifical Household, Raniero Cantalamessa, has in his first Sermon for Lent, commented as follows:

> I dare to suggest to pastors and spiritual guides, when you sense in prayer that God > is angry with the people he has entrusted to you, do not immediately take sides with > God but with the people! This is what Moses did, to the point of declaring that he > was willing to be blotted out from the book of life with them (see Ex 32:32). The > Bible lets us know that this is exactly what God wanted so that he could "abandon the > plan of destroying his people." When we are before the people, however, then we need > to side with God wholeheartedly.

> Very soon after his intercessory prayer when Moses was before the people, it was > then that he expressed his anger: he smashed the golden calf, scattered its > powdered dust upon the water, and made the people drink it (see Ex 32:19ff). Only > the person who has defended people before God and has carried the weight of their > sin has the right—and will have the courage—to raise his voice later against them > in defence of God as Moses did.

Every action, even of 'hostile' parties, cannot be separated from Jesus Christ, Ground of Being, YHVH, for all that appears is One.

Our intercession cannot be separated from the historical context of 'Abbà', Our Father, Jesus Christ, Ground of Being, YHVH.

There is a 'cultural memory', propagated by the Jehovah's Witnesses, that the Rule of Jesus Christ started in 1914:

> DECADES in advance, Bible students proclaimed that there would be significant > developments in 1914. What were these, and what evidence points to 1914 as such an > important year?

<https://www.jw.org/en/publications/books/bible-teach/1914-significant-year-bible-prophecy/>

Why is this so? The answer can be found, resulting from the '100 year' treaties starting around 1714 in the Reign of Queen Anne of Great Britain, when the position of the Lord High Treasurer went into Commission as a result of the South Sea Bubble.

What is the event in 1914?

> Hansard 24 Nov 1914 – WWI – International bill market closure

> The great accepting houses stand in splendid credit. They have not exceeded their > functions in the past, consequently they were able to meet the stress and storm in > this time of trouble. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, in his 1558 arrangements to > meet the crisis, provided, in the first instance, for the discount of bills of > exchange. Undoubtedly that was very necessary. Bills of exchange could find no market > in the City. The discount of bills of exchange had entirely disappeared, and unless > the Chancellor of the Exchequer had stepped in, the results would have been > terrible. In my opinion, however, the Chancellor of the Exchequer went too far. He > not only provided a discount market, but he relieved the last endorser on each bill > that was brought to the bank . I listened to the speech of the Chancellor of the > Exchequer, but I did not hear any explanation of his reason for relieving the last
AA
> endorser of the bills that were brought to the bank when the Government's bill > market, if I may so call it, was set up. ...

> But the Chancellor's relief of the last endorser went further than to relieve the > discount houses. The provision was such that every last endorser was relieved.
> Hansard extract, quoted in www.courtrecord.org.uk/British-PDF
> Circa line 1230, see pages 31 line 1113 et seq for context

The reason can now be disclosed:

Matthew 6:8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

6:9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

6:10 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
AA

6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

6:14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

6:15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father
forgive your trespasses.

The then British Chancellor of the Exchequer took refuge in the Lord's Prayer. The Continental types, not being Christian, called the British 'idiots' and wired their money to New York, bought German War Bonds and started World War I. The cultural memory in the Jehovah's Witnesses has the tradition that the Church of Satan will prevail for a time but will be overcome by Jesus Christ, YHVH, Ground of Being.

Upon the harsh proving grounds of battlefields, the LORD God, YHVH, Lord of Hosts has shown the result of that wise decision of taking refuge in the the Word of Jesus Christ given in the Lord's Prayer. Naviget antyciram!.

A hundred years has passed, Lord Jesus Christ, Ground of Being, YHVH, has heard thy cry and interceded for thee before Abbà, Our Father.

> The very cry "Abbà!" that the Spirit, coming upon us, addresses to the Father (see > Rom 8:15; Gal 4:6) demonstrates that the one who prays in us through the Spirit is > Jesus, the only Son of God. In fact, the Holy Spirit on his own could not address God > by saying, "Abbà, Father," because he is not "begotten" but instead "proceeds" from > the Father. If the Spirit can do this, it is because he is the Spirit of Christ who > continues his filial prayer in us.

Indeed, YHVH, Our Father, has promised that those who cry for Him, Abbà!, Babaji!, Father! shall receive help in their hour of need or moment of crisis.

We send our love to YHVH for Your Holiness.
